

The 12 Traits of a Leader | September 30, 2015

Introduction:

1. Leadership is actually simple. Everyone leads, even if they only lead themselves.
2. That means we are all leaders.
3. Great leaders are those whose internal voice is heard and worth hearing.
4. Great leaders ask themselves two question — frequently: How will this next decision affect my life? AND How will this next decision affect the people I influence?
5. The most powerful way to teach leadership: Modeling More is caught than taught.

The 12 Traits Great Leaders Have:

1. They take Personal Responsibility
2. They are Problem Solvers

3. They are Empathetic

4. They are Humble

5. They aren't afraid of Conflict

6. They use Self Control

7. They are Resilient

8. They know how to Motivate themselves

9. They are Passionate

10. They know when to use their Sense of Humor

11. They are Service Oriented

